YOUR NEIGHBOR, YOUR STRENGTH COACH.

— ABOUT US

Charleston Strength Club is right here in Wando Woods — and proud to partner with the North Charleston Senior Centers, bringing affordable coach-led strength classes to seniors across the community. Coach Adam Oliver — CSCS certified, former SC Stingrays strength coach, trained at Mike Boyle Strength & Conditioning in Boston — brings pro-level programming right to Wando Woods residents.

We train student athletes, adults, and seniors at prices that work for real people. Whether you want to get faster and jump higher, have flexibility or mobility concerns, were just released from rehab, or simply need programming and accountability for your workouts — Adam's got you covered.

No fancy facility required. We take it to the park or your backyard. Pro-level coaching, real results — and with your coach living right here in Wando Woods, we are able to keep it affordable.

Small groups, flexible scheduling, and a coach who is part of this community.
